

URGENT

It is brought to the notice of all the publishers of newspapers/periodicals that they have to submit copies of their publication within 48 hours of publication to RNI(H.Qrs), New Delhi. However, far fewer number of publishers are submitting their issues.

2. All the publishers are advised to comply with the mandatory provision of PRB Act, 1867 (The Registration of Newspapers (Central) Rules, 1956), under which they have to submit copies of their publications. The copies are to be submitted along with a forwarding letter mentioning the Title name, language, periodicity and place of publication. This may be treated as most immediate. The violation will attract action as per PRB Act, 1867.
